I love the relationship they all have with each other especially ...

By Nicole G.

20 years later and the pups are all grown up.....i mean really grown up. Kanye is every bit his father's son with a little bit of his uncle Izra's arrogant ways. They face challenges that go beyond defending their way of life form a rival pack they face something even more sinister and dark. I love the relationship they all have with each other especially growing up in the same house. The only member of the pack I can't quite stand is Arya all grown up. She seems to do everything in her power to distance herself from her pack and may pay the ultimate price for her betrayal. This was definitely worth the wait and then some with all of the action they have going on the end left me sitting on the edge of my seat wishing that I had waited for part 2 to come out so I could read it all at once because it's killing me to know what will happen. Nice work as always Natavia.

Just what I expected from you

By Ja Solucian

It was nothing less than I expected from you! I loved the pups but damn I missed Izra's crazy a$$ and Dayo's slick comments lol. I'm def feeling the connection between Kanye and Monifa, she sure had a right to make Arya leave because she is so shiesty, I was kinda routing for her to get to know Kumba's cousin but now I don't know what her intentions are. Akea and chancy def fit the term 'opposites' attract. Yet I can see in the future Akea will start getting traits from Kanye and boss up on her. Damn Baneet in love with 2 dudes? How she gonna play Zaan like that yet be mad when he comforting the witch? I don't know if to route for them to be apart or with each other. I really can't wait for part 2!
