An ideal addition

By Midwest Book Review

A beautifully and profusely illustrated single volume survey, the world religions represented include Hinduism, Buddhism, Sikhism, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Zoroastrianism, Baha'i, Confucianism, Taoism, Shinto, and Jainism, "Inside World Religions: An Illustrated Guide" by Anglican priest Kevin O'Donnell presents a truly panoramic introduction to diverse religious traditions. Informed and informative, "Inside World Religions: An Illustrated Guide" features a 'reader friendly', informed and informative text that will provide a sound basis for non-specialist general readers to acquire a basic understanding of the fundamentals with respect to the major religions of the world. Enthusiastically recommended reading, "Inside World Religions" is an ideal addition to personal, school, and community library "Religion & Spirituality" reference collections.

Info-packed and easy to read...just one ?

By a Christian

Good over-view for many world faiths. Only issue i have is on page 143, where it states "The stone was the sacred stone upon which Abraham nearly sacrificed his son, Ishmael."

Ishmael? Does Islam hold the belief that it was this son (and not Isaac, as the Bible reports)?

very impressed

By Lexi

I was very impressed with how fast it shipped. I also liked that, even though the product was used, it looked almost brand new.
