Look elsewhere.

By F. Osborne

This book promises a transformational experience in seven easy steps. Based on my experience with this book, and with other methods of yoga, tantra, and kundalini, I believe this book promises too much and misrepresents the larger view of the energies it discusses. It offers an easy method for achieving something that takes more time to cultivate than is suggested by this material. Some things are not easy, and shouldn't be presented as such. Several other reviewers have expressed opinions similar to this one, but these reviews are no longer visible on this page because the book has a following of those who do not like to be contradicted. Bottom line: there are other, more useful books available for increasing sensual pleasure via kundalini exploration.

Awaken your desires

By Amazon Customer

These are my comments on a review copy that I received. Visualization of, and focusing on, various parts of the body during meditation are methods of healing promoted by many disciplines both sacred and secular. This slim book presents a short structured routine for maximizing your sexual pleasure. It can be done alone or with a partner. Be aware this is not a quick and casual stimulus program. It must be done properly and in a calm state of mind. As with all worthwhile activities, the technique gets better with practice.

Ripoff !!

By ggadd

Please don't believe the positive reviews on this piece of junk! There is not a single instruction regarding Kundalini -it is simply a short, and I do mean short, description of a sex technique made up by the author. If you're looking for info on Kundalini, there's none here, nothing. Apparently, Amazon will let anything get published, no matter how bad it is. But to their credit, they do have a return policy on Kindle books. I returned this one as soon as I read it.
