The best thing about this book is the ideal of this ...

By Jere Franklin Ownby

Is it possible to give ZERO stars? The best thing about this book is the ideal of this book—a handbook to turn mere mortals like you and me into Harvey Specter from the USA Network show SUITS. At least it's a cool idea. The second best thing about this book is its cover. There is nothing else positive about this book beyond its concept and its cover. I didn't really expect a life-changing volume but for $8.00 I did expect something more than a book probably written in under three hours and totally devoid of any wit or creativity or useful advice. I suggest that you do not purchase this book. Somebody wants to cash in on the popularity of SUITS—and that's fine with me—but this worthless book does a great disservice to a great TV show.

I was expecting more quotes

By Gustavo Sánchez

This looks like the review of season 1. Not enough. Is just a brief description of Harvey Specter and company and a few quotes.

One Star

By Eleanor Biggs

Not very long, only 20 pages!
